

December 10, 2011 Happy Holidays from Futureslps.com

Thank you to each of you for your continued support through another year! 2011 has been a year full of joy, opportunities, accomplishments and most of all the gift of being able to share resources with each of you!

On September 7, 2011 Futureslps.com celebrated their one year anniversary, last week the website was nominated by PediaStaff for 2011 EduBlog "Best Student Blog" and this year I finished my Clinical Fellowship Year (CFY)! I am submitting my paperwork to ASHA and will soon have to update my "About Me" Section from CF to CCC.

So with all of the great news and all of the many accomplishments that 2011 has brought, I could not close this year without saying a SPECIAL THANK YOU TO EACH OF YOU! There may not be enough ways to express my sincere gratitude to each of you for your words of encouragement, emails, feedback, and all of the other ways in which you each have touched my life.

Congratulations to the December Class of 2011, I know how excited all of you must be!

Wishing all of you Happy Holidays and an amazing 2012,
